

Anglican Academies and Secondary School Heads support each other as leaders to live out our shared calling to give young people the chance to learn and grow in a distinctively Christian community that is inclusive of all. We come from many different school contexts and our annual conference allows us to join together in reflection, learning and worship to be better equipped for the privilege of leadership.

Dignity is the theme for this year's AASSH conference in the peaceful setting of the Royal Foundation of St Katharine in London

This year, we are in London, focussing on 'Educating for Dignity and Respect'. The conference is in a beautiful urban oasis with a prayerful chapel. The Royal Foundation of St Katharine (<https://rfsk.org.uk/>) is used both as a conference and retreat centre and is easy to get to, being 2 minutes from Limehouse DLR station.

Every year we have an annual conference which inspires us as leaders for the year ahead. It is planned by headteachers for headteachers.

Last year's conference feedback was very positive.

"The AASSH conference encourages me to hold on to the vision and values which first attracted me to headship of a church school."

"The AASSH conference reminds me of who I am, what I am here for and how I want to lead my school. Fellowship among heads."

"Can I afford the time to attend the AASSH conference? Can I afford not to?"

In recent years our conferences have tackled a wide range of themes in interesting places.

- 2013 Grasping the Nettle (York)
- 2014 Christ at the Heart of Change (Chichester)
- 2015 Nurturing Talent: Lighting Fires (Durham)
- 2016 Schools as Agents of Reconciliation (Coventry)
- 2017 Hope (Liverpool)
- 2018 Wisdom (Greenwich)

We have been fortunate to attract top speakers, including the Archbishops of Canterbury and York, and various theologians and thought provoking educational thinkers.

Worship is always at the heart of what we do.

Come and join us!
